

Sajjad Waheed:

Born and raised in Saudi Arabia, Sajjad Waheed, IRCA certified ISO 9001-2015 (SGS-UK), has completed his education till Grade-12 (Pre-Engineering) at Saudi Arabia International School. He earned his Bachelors in Computer Sciences, and then Masters in Business Administration.

Being a consultant, Sajjad has been engaged with Authorities and Ministries of Education in Dubai, Abu Dhabi, China, Malaysia, Qatar and Oman for different educational project and initiatives. He has also been engaged with Microsoft for technology-augmented educational quality management solution as Principal System Analyst.

Sajjad is presently working with K-12 school leadership & middle management to raise educational standards & helping them to realize their responsibilities canvas towards achieving student learning outcomes & gaining excellence in life skills. He also conducts academic & leadership Quality Audits. Based on a projectile work environment, he diagnoses the root-cause of agreed upon work domains of a school, and developed customized policies and standard operating procedures, as well as the monitoring system for school management.

He got the opportunity to initiate transformational activities towards an outstanding teaching-learning process & participative school leadership, in multiple schools. His work on Instructional Supervision has been acknowledged & awarded by Global Educational Forum-2012, University of Georgia, USA. Being a Principal Auditor, he has trained academicians, policy makers and different educational NGO personnel on school improvement, quality audits and data driven-decision making. He is passionate towards engaging business corporates for investment in education as their corporate social responsibility towards education, for a more peaceful and progressive world.

